

Walking from the Railway Station to the National Badminton Centre.

- ☞ If you walk out of the station turn left and walk alongside the office building.
- ☞ When you get to the end of the office building turn left and there should be some stairs on the left about 20m in front of you down to a car park.
- ☞ At bottom of stairs bear right and walk up the car park
- ☞ Go all the way to the end of the car parks and on left hand side take footpath.
- ☞ At the end of this footpath turn left and continue. (You should walk over the railway/dual carriageway)
- ☞ At the end of the footpath bear right and on the right there is Bignell Croft.
- ☞ Walk down the close to the end and there is a footpath which leads to Bradwell Road.
- ☞ Turn right at the end and walk under the road bridge.
- ☞ You should now be able to see the Badminton centre on your right.

Sounds a little complicated but it really isn't.

It will probably take about 10 mins.
